FOR RELEASE: Immediate

On 05/30/08, the New York State Police Loudonville Bureau of Criminal Investigation arrested Arthur Frank Durivage IV, age 29, of Troy, N.Y., for Rape in the 2nd Degree, a class "D" felony.

Durivage is accused of engaging in sexual intercourse with a 13-year-old female on three separate occasions during September 2007, while in the city of Watervliet.

Durivage is employed as a Public Works Wage Investigator with the New York State Department of Labor. This investigation revealed that on numerous occasions, Durivage maintained e-mail communications with the victim while at work, using a Department of Labor computer.

Durivage was arraigned before Watervliet City Court Judge Thomas Lamb and remanded to the Albany County Correctional Facility in lieu of $75,000 cash bail.

Also participating in this investigation were the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, the New York State Attorney General's Office, the New York State Inspector General's Office and the State Police Computer Crimes Unit.
